FROM THE PASTOR

JESUS IS LORD!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Bishop's Congress for the National Eucharistic Revival has encouraged all parishes to adopt the "Invite ONE Back" initiative. The "Invite ONE Back" initiative asks parishioners to invite one person from their inner circle who has fallen away from the Church to join them for Holy Mass. Imagine if every faithful Catholic invited just one person back! Our churches would be renewed and filled with communion—a desire we all long for.

Saint Mary's has designated the next weekend (the first weekend of the month) as "Invite One Back Weekend." All parishioners this week are asked to prayerfully consider whom you will invite back to Church.

Often people who have fallen away from the Church would want to go to the Sacrament of Confession before returning to Holy Mass. On "Invite ONE Back" weekends, Confessions will be available a half hour before Mass for all people to experience the love and mercy of Jesus. Everyone is welcome.

Additional ministries will also take part in the "Invite ONE Back" weekend to welcome people back home to our parish family. There will be greeters at the doors of the church, along with a welcome and information table where parishioners can register with the parish, request information, or obtain a Mass Card.

Realizing that we have a very large parking lot that is a challenge for some of our parishioners to walk so far from their cars to the church, we will introduce a new parking lot ministry where parishioners can be driven from the cars on a parish golf cart to the doors of the church. Deacon Bill Ross is coordinating this ministry. If you would like to volunteer to be a driver of the golf cart, please email DeaconBill@stmarychurchnj.org.

Hospitality and fellowship play an important part in "Invite ONE Back" weekends. We are blessed to have an amazing hospitality committee to provide refreshments after Mass so that our parishioners can enjoy fellowship with one another. Next weekend, I ask you to please stay around after Mass for hospitality and fellowship. Go up to someone you don't know and introduce yourself. We want everyone to experience the joy and love at Saint Mary's.

Also, next weekend, Friday, September 1st at 6:30 pm is the First Friday Healing Mass. This is another opportunity to "Invite ONE Back" who needs to experience the healing touch of the Holy Spirit. Miracles are happening at the First Friday Healing Masses. Invite someone to join you.

There are only 24% of Catholics who attend Mass regularly. You play an important role in this "Invite ONE Back" initiative. Please pray every day to the Holy Spirit to reveal to you that one person whom you will invite to join you at Mass next weekend. Please be assured of my prayers for you as you "Invite ONE Back."

In Jesus and Mary,

Father Jeff Kegley
Pastor

Pope Francis: Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

This Sunday's Gospel (Mt 16:13-20) takes us back to a key juncture along Jesus' journey with his disciples: the moment in which he wants to assess the extent of their faith in him. First, he wants to know what the people think of him; and the people think that Jesus is a prophet, which is true, but they do not grasp the centrality of his Person; they do not understand the centrality of his mission. Then he asks the disciples the question closest to his heart, that is, he asks them directly: "But who do you say that I am?" (v. 15). And with that 'but' Jesus firmly separates the Apostles from the multitudes, as if to say: but you, who are with me every day and know me personally, what more have you understood? The Master expects from his own a lofty response different from that of public opinion. And indeed, such an answer gushes forth from the heart of Simon, called Peter: "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God" (v. 16). Simon Peter finds on his lips words greater than he, words that do not spring from his natural faculties. Perhaps he did not attend elementary school, and [yet] he is capable of saying these words, stronger than he! But they are inspired by the Heavenly Father (cf. v. 17), who reveals Jesus' true identity to the first of the Twelve: he is the Messiah, the Son sent by God to save mankind. And from this answer, Jesus understands that, thanks to the faith given by the Father, there is a solid foundation upon which he can build his community, his Church. Thus, he says to Simon: You, Simon, "you are Peter" — that is, stone, rock — "and on this rock I will build my Church" (v. 18).

With us too, today, Jesus wants to continue building his Church, this house with solid foundations but where cracks are not lacking, and which is in constant need of repair. Always. The Church always needs to be reformed, repaired. We certainly do not feel like rocks, but only like small stones. However, no small stone is useless; indeed, in Jesus' hands the smallest stone becomes precious, because he picks it up, gazes at it with great tenderness, fashions it with his Spirit, and positions it in the right place that he had always had in mind and where it can be more useful to the whole structure. Each of us is a small stone, but in Jesus' hands participates in the building of the Church. And all of us, as small as we are, are rendered "living stones" because when Jesus takes his stone in hand, he makes it his own; he infuses it with life, full of life, full of life from the Holy Spirit, full of life from his love. And thus we have a place and a mission in the Church: she is a community of life, made up of very many stones, all different, which form a single edifice as a sign of fraternity and communion.

Moreover, today's Gospel reminds us that Jesus also wanted Peter as a visible center of communion for his Church — he too, is not a great stone; he is a small stone, but taken up by Jesus, he becomes the center of communion — in Peter and in those who would succeed him in the same responsibility of primacy, who since the beginning have been identified as the Bishops of Rome, the city where Peter and Paul bore witness in blood.

Let us entrust ourselves to Mary, Queen of the Apostles, Mother of the Church. She was in the Upper Room next to Peter when the Holy Spirit descended upon the Apostles and spurred them to go out to proclaim to all that Jesus is Lord. Today may our Mother sustain us and accompany us through her intercession, so that we may fully realize that unity and that communion for which Christ and the Apostles prayed and gave their lives.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Following on the heels of our successful summer Great Fair, we are excited to prepare for the Saint Mary's Fall Country Fair to be held September 15-17!

We are once again calling on all parishioners to please volunteer for one night to help us with fun, tickets, and games. Make it a night out with a family member, a friend or come out and make a new friend!

The fair provides much needed financial support to our Parish, and every volunteer is needed to allow the fair to be successful. So please consider helping out! We thank you in advance for your help! For any questions, please email cmcnicholas@stmarychurchnj.org

Please use the sign-up genius link below to register to volunteer:

Post Abortion Healing

The psychological and spiritual wounds of abortion can be deep and crippling. It can have a devastating effect, not only on the mother but also on the father, grandparents, and friends of the mother. Rachel's Vineyard is a chance to focus on this painful time in your life through a supportive and non-judgmental process, in an atmosphere of confidentiality, understanding, and compassion. If you have suffered through an abortion, you might consider attending one of our retreat weekends.

On December 12, 1531 Our Lady appeared to an Aztec man, St. Juan Diego, and requested that a shrine be built on Tepeyac hill. She gave him the miraculous image of her, seen above. Through her image nine million Aztecs were converted to Christ and abandoned the practice of human sacrifice.

Today Our Lady of Guadalupe is the patroness of the pro life movement, as we work to end the practice of human sacrifice through abortion and uphold the dignity of every human life.

Our strongest weapon in this battle is prayer. Please join us the second Tuesday of each month as we observe a Holy Hour for life.

Eucharistic Ministry For the Homebound

Would you like to bring cheer to a homebound person by bringing Jesus to them? The need is great, and we can't do it without you. We are always in need of individuals to bring Communion on Sunday mornings to those who are unable to join us. Please pray about it. If interested for more info or to sign up, please call Terry Ruane at: 908-461-1712.

THE DIOCESE OF TRENTON is committed to the initiative outlined in the U.S. Bishop's Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People and to its own policies and guidelines regarding the reporting and investigation of sexual abuse allegation involving minors.

If you have been sexually abused as a minor by a member of the clergy or anyone representing the Catholic Church, or if you know of someone who was, you can report that abuse through the diocesan Abuse Hotline: 1-888-296-2965 or via email at abuseline@dioceseoftrenton.org

The Diocese of Trenton reports any allegations of sexual abuse to the appropriate law enforcement agencies. Anyone with an allegation is also encouraged to provide that information to local law enforcement authorities.
