JESUS IS LORD!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Thank you to all parishioners who have completed and submitted your Commitment Card to the church. For those parishioners who have not yet had the opportunity to submit their card, a letter will be mailed to you with a personalized Commitment Card. Each and every one of you is a vital member of our parish community and we want to hear from you! This is an opportunity to reflect upon and renew your sacrificial commitment to support the mission of Saint Mary Church. For those who are able – there is an opportunity to make a one-time gift to the parish. If you have any questions, please contact the church office.

For those of you who would prefer to fill out your Commitment Card online, please visit the parish website at <https://www.stmarychurchnj.org/>.

We heard amazing talks from parishioners sharing their love of our parish community last weekend after the homily at Mass. I so often say: We are Blessed. I want to thank Darlene Line, Eric Youncofski, John Cino, Chris Parks, and Amanda Krueger for encouraging our parishioners with your amazing testimonies. As one gentleman said to me after hearing Eric's testimony, "That was very inspirational." Hearing people giving testimonies is always powerful. It reminds me of Acts 1:8, "when the Holy Spirit comes to you, you will be my witnesses to the ends of the earth."

This week the Church celebrates "All Saints Day" on November 1st which is a holy day of obligation. Our Mass schedule begins on the All-Hallows Eve, Tuesday at 5 p.m. On Wednesday Masses will be held at 8:30 a.m. celebrated with the students of Saint Mary School, 12:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m.

Thursday, November 2nd is the Feast of All Souls Day where the Church remembers and prays for the Holy Souls in Purgatory. Next Sunday, November 5th, our parish has invited families who have lost loved ones this past year to join us at 10 a.m. Mass for a Mass of Remembrance. Names of our deceased parishioners will be read at this Mass. If you have a family member who died this past year, but the funeral services were held at another parish, please email our parish secretary, Eileen Donohue at edonohue@stmarychurchnj.org no later than Friday, November 3rd and their name will be added to the list of deceased.

Our First Friday Healing Mass will be celebrated this Friday, November 3rd at 6:30 p.m. I want to encourage you to invite one person in your inner circle who has fallen away from the church to join you in attending the Healing Mass.

Have a blessed week!

In Jesus and Mary,

Father Jeff Kegley
Pastor

Pope Francis: 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

This Sunday, the Liturgy presents us with a brief, but very important Gospel passage (Mt 22:34-40). Matthew the Evangelist recounts that the Pharisees assemble in order to put Jesus to the test. One of them, a doctor of the Law, asks him this question: “Teacher, which one is the great commandment in the law?” (v. 36). It is an insidious question, because more than 600 precepts are mentioned in the Law of Moses. How should the great commandment be distinguished among these? But Jesus responds without hesitation: “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind”. And he adds: “You shall love your neighbor as yourself” (vv. 37, 39).

This response of Jesus is not to be taken for granted, because, among the numerous precepts of the Hebrew Law, the most important were the 10 Commandments, communicated directly by God to Moses, as the conditions of the Covenant with the people. But Jesus wants to make it understood that without love for God and for our neighbor there is no true fidelity to this Covenant with the Lord. You may do many good things, fulfil many precepts, many good things, but if you do not have love, this serves no purpose.

It is confirmed by another text in the Book of Exodus, the so-called “Covenant Code”, where it is said that one cannot adhere to the Covenant with the Lord and mistreat those who enjoy his protection. And who are those who enjoy his protection? The Bible says: the widow, the orphan and the stranger, the migrant, that is, the most lonely and defenseless people (cf. Ex 22:20-21). In responding to those Pharisees who question him, Jesus also tries to help them put their religiosity in order, to distinguish what truly matters from what is less important. Jesus says: “On these two commandments depend all the law and the prophets” (Mt. 22:40). They are the most important, and the others depend on these two. And Jesus lived his life precisely in this way: preaching and practicing what truly matters and is essential, namely, love. Love gives impulse and fruitfulness to life and to the journey of life: without love, both life and faith remain sterile.

What Jesus proposes in this Gospel passage is a wonderful ideal, which corresponds to our heart’s most authentic desire. Indeed, we were created to love and to be loved. God, who is Love, created us to make us participants in his life, to be loved by him and to love him, and with him, to love all other people. This is God’s “dream” for mankind. And to accomplish it we need his grace; we need to receive within us the capacity to love which comes from God himself. Jesus offers himself to us in the Eucharist for this very reason. In it we receive Jesus in the utmost expression of his love, when he offered himself to the Father for our salvation.

May the Blessed Virgin help us to welcome into our life the “great commandment” of love of God and neighbor. Indeed, if we have experienced it ever since we were children, we will never cease converting ourselves to it and putting it into practice in the various situations in which we find ourselves.

Post Abortion Healing

The psychological and spiritual wounds of abortion can be deep and crippling. It can have a devastating effect, not only on the mother but also on the father, grandparents, and friends of the mother. Rachel's Vineyard is a chance to focus on this painful time in your life through a supportive and non-judgmental process, in an atmosphere of confidentiality, understanding, and compassion. If you have suffered through an abortion, you might consider attending one of our retreat weekends. Retreat weekends are both women and men. For more information contact:

Holy Hour for Life

✠Exposition and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament

✠Rosary for Life

✠Stations of the Cross
for victims of abortion

On December 12, 1531 Our Lady appeared to an Aztec man, St. Juan Diego, and requested that a shrine be built on Tepeyac hill. She gave him the miraculous image of her, seen above. Through her image nine million Aztecs were converted to Christ and abandoned the practice of human sacrifice.

Today Our Lady of Guadalupe is the patroness of the pro life movement, as we work to end the practice of human sacrifice through abortion and uphold the dignity of every human life.

Our strongest weapon in this battle is prayer. Please join us the second Tuesday of each month as we observe a Holy Hour for life
