FR. JEFF KEGLEY

FROM THE PASTOR

JESUS IS LORD!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In the early days of Christianity, the great St. Augustine proclaimed: “We are resurrection people and alleluia is our song!” Yes, the resurrection of Jesus Christ is the centerpiece of our Catholic faith. The only response that makes sense is the one the church will sing for fifty days, from Easter Sunday to Pentecost Sunday, “Alleluia! Praise the Lord Jesus Christ!”

Easter celebrates such wonderful, good news that Christian people have never found just one day long enough to celebrate its importance in their lives. The fifty days of the Easter season offer much food for our journey of faith. God’s holy word is rich, as is God’s table. It is good for us to listen closely to the Easter story and to take and eat the bread of angels given for the life of the world.

The good news of Easter is that Jesus Christ not only was gloriously alive that first Easter Sunday morning, but He is also still gloriously alive among us today! The crucifixion and burial were real, but they were not the end. As we will be reminded daily throughout the Easter season in our readings from the Acts of the Apostles, the friends of Jesus who met the Risen Lord were obviously changed in a dramatic fashion. They were relentless in their pursuit of continuing the mission of Jesus Christ.

There are two fundamental ways in which we are called upon to identify with the Lord’s Life, Death, and Resurrection. First through a personal experience and encounter with Jesus Christ - moving one from darkness to light, from sin to virtue, from superficiality to self-awareness, from apathy and indifference to commitment and service. Secondly, through a communal experience, in our families and communities, of movement from suspicion to respect and from a focus on self to an experience of solidarity with all our brothers and sisters.

On this Easter day, I want to say to our beloved parishioners, thank you for your dedication, love, and unwavering faith that enrich our parish community. Your presence and commitment make Saint Mary, Mother of God Church a place of warmth, welcome, and love for all who enter our doors. We are truly blessed to journey together in faith.

To our cherished guests and extended family, we are thrilled to have you join us for our Easter celebration. Your presence among us adds to our joy and reminds us of the eternal family bond we share in Christ. You are a gift to our community, and we welcome you with open hearts and open arms.

On behalf of Father Jordan, Father Mark, our Deacons, and staff - Happy Easter! ALLELUIA!

In Jesus and Mary,

Father Jeff Kegley
Pastor

Pope Francis: Christ, my hope, has arisen!

The Monday after Easter is called “Monday of the Angel”, according to a very beautiful tradition which corresponds to Bible sources on the Resurrection. The Gospels (cf. Mt 28:1-10, Mk 16:1-7; Lk 24:1-12), in fact, recount that when the women went to the Sepulchre, they found it open. They feared they would not be able to enter because the tomb had been sealed with a large rock. Instead, it was open, and a voice from within told them that Jesus was not there but had Risen.

The words: “he has Risen” are uttered for the first time. The Evangelists tell us that this first announcement was made by angels, that is, by God’s messengers. There is a significance in this angelic presence: just as the Angel Gabriel announced the Incarnation of the Word, so too a human word was not adequate to announce the Resurrection for the first time. A higher being was needed to communicate a reality that was so awe-inspiring, so incredible that perhaps no human being would have dared to utter it. After this first announcement, the community of disciples begins to repeat: “The Lord has risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon!” (Lk 24:34). This is a beautiful announcement. We can all say it together now: “The Lord has risen indeed”. This first announcement — “The Lord has risen indeed!” — required an intelligence that was superior to that of human beings.

Today is a festive and joyful day customarily spent with family. It is a family day. After celebrating Easter, one feels the need to gather again with one’s loved ones and with friends to celebrate, because fraternity is the fruit of the Easter of Christ who, with his death and Resurrection, conquered sin which separated man from God, man from himself, man from his brothers. But we know that sin always separates, always creates hostility. Jesus broke down the wall that divides people and restored peace, beginning to weave the fabric of a new fraternity. It is so important in our time to rediscover brotherhood as it was experienced by the early Christian communities; to rediscover how to make room for Jesus who never divides and always unites. There cannot be true communion and commitment to the common good and social justice without fraternity and sharing. Without fraternal sharing, no ecclesial or civil community can be formed: there is only an ensemble of individuals moved or grouped together, according to common interests. But brotherhood is a grace that Jesus creates.

The Easter of Christ has caused another thing to erupt into the world: the novelty of dialogue and relationship, a novelty which has become a responsibility for Christians. Jesus in fact said: “By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another” (Jn 13:35). This is why we cannot close ourselves off in our private world, within our group, but instead we are called to safeguard the common good and to take care of our brothers and sisters, in particular those who are weakest and most marginalized. Only fraternity can guarantee a lasting peace, can overcome poverty, can extinguish tension and war, can eradicate corruption and crime. May the Angel who tells us: “He has risen” help us to live the fraternity and the novelty of dialogue and relationships and of concern for the common good.

May the Virgin Mary whom, in this time of Easter, we invoke with the title Queen of Heaven, support us with her prayers so that the fraternity and communion that we experience in these days of Easter may become our way of life and the spirit of our relationships.

Knights of Columbus

Are you ready for the baseball season? Did you know that the Founder of the Knights Of Columbus, Blessed Michael McGivney, was also a heck of a baseball player? We know that in one game with his seminary team, he scored three runs, contributing to a big victory of 23-6. He paved the way for a long history of baseball players who would join the Knights, including Connie Mack, Babe Ruth, Joe DiMaggio, Mike Sweeney, and Shane Victorino. Catholic gentlemen 18 years and older can join online at www.kofc.org/join.

Use Promo Code BlessedMcGivney for one year of free membership. Our local Council is 6552.

Job Opportunity: LIFE TEEN & EDGE Youth Minister

Saint Mary's is looking for a spirit-filled Youth Minister who will be responsible for leading our successful LIFE TEEN & EDGE programs.

The Mission of Life Teen is to lead teens closer to Christ. The successful candidate must have a passion for this mission.

If interested, please call
Father Jeff at the parish office

On December 12, 1531 Our Lady appeared to an Aztec man, St. Juan Diego, and requested that a shrine be built on Tepeyac hill. She gave him the miraculous image of her, seen above. Through her image nine million Aztecs were converted to Christ and abandoned the practice of human sacrifice.

Today Our Lady of Guadalupe is the patroness of the pro life movement, as we work to end the practice of human sacrifice through abortion and uphold the dignity of every human life.

Eucharistic Ministry For the Homebound

Would you like to bring cheer to a homebound person by bringing Jesus to them? The need is great, and we can't do it without you. We are always in need of individuals to bring Communion on Sunday mornings to those who are unable to join us. Please pray about it. If interested for more info or to sign up, please call Terry Ruane at: 908-461-1712.

THE DIOCESE OF TRENTON is committed to the initiative outlined in the U.S. Bishop's Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People and to its own policies and guidelines regarding the reporting and investigation of sexual abuse allegation involving minors.

If you have been sexually abused as a minor by a member of the clergy or anyone representing the Catholic Church, or if you know of someone who was, you can report that abuse through the diocesan Abuse Hotline: 1-888-296-2965 or via email at abuseline@dioceseoftrenton.org

The Diocese of Trenton reports any allegations of sexual abuse to the appropriate law enforcement agencies. Anyone with an allegation is also encouraged to provide that information to local law enforcement authorities.
