

“LET THE LITTLE CHILDREN
COME TO ME”
JESUS

The image is a composite. The upper portion shows a close-up of Jesus with long, wavy brown hair and a full beard, smiling warmly. He is wearing a simple white tunic. The lower portion, separated by a jagged, torn-paper-like edge, depicts Jesus sitting on the ground in a lush, green forest. He is facing a group of four children who are also sitting on the ground, looking towards him. The scene is lit with soft, natural light filtering through the trees.

FR. JEFF KEGLEY

FROM THE PASTOR

JESUS IS LORD!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The cover of this week's bulletin is beautiful picture of Jesus with children from the first season of The Chosen with the quote: "Let the little children come to me." (Matthew 19:14) I wanted to take a moment to express my heartfelt gratitude to all our young parents for consistently bringing your children to Mass. It truly warms my heart to see families gathered together in prayer and worship, instilling the values of faith and spirituality in our young children. As parents, you have a profound influence on your children's spiritual growth and development. By prioritizing attendance at Mass, you are not only setting a wonderful example for your children, but you are also creating lasting memories and traditions that will stay with them throughout their lives.

I am constantly inspired by the dedication and commitment that you show in ensuring that your children have the opportunity to experience the beauty and grace of the Mass. Your efforts do not go unnoticed. At Saint Mary's, we want you to know that you are supported and encouraged in your efforts to raise your children in the faith. Our parish community is here to support you and to walk alongside you as you bring up your children in the ways of the Lord. Thank you for being shining examples of love and devotion to your children and to our church.

To serve our young families, we have introduced a new Children's Ministry that is available during the 10:00am Mass! Our first month of this new ministry has been a great blessing. A special thank you to our dedicated Children's Ministry team for their hard work and commitment in nurturing the faith of our youngest parishioners. We are grateful for their love and dedication to serving our children. If you would like to serve on the Children's Ministry team, please call Suzanne Pfirman at the parish office. May God bless you and your little ones abundantly as you continue on this beautiful journey of faith and parenthood.

This week's Fridays at Saint Mary's is an evening of Encounter at Our Lady of the Most Blessed Sacrament Shrine at 7:00pm. The Encounter Night is a time to come together in Adoration, Worship, Teaching, Witness, Confessions and Healing. Come experience the power and presence of Jesus in a new and transformative way. All are welcome to join us for this special evening of encounter with the Lord. Don't miss out on this opportunity to grow in your faith and experience the love and mercy of God. All are encouraged to invite someone to join them at the Encounter Night, someone who has fallen away from the Faith. Let an Encounter with Jesus restore them.

Have a blessed week!

In Jesus and Mary,

Father Jeff Kegley
Pastor

Pope Francis: Third Sunday of Easter

At the center of this Third Sunday of Easter there is the encounter with the Risen One experienced by his disciples, all together. This is evidenced especially by the Gospel which introduces us once again to the Upper Room, where Jesus manifests himself to the Apostles, addressing this greeting to them: “Peace to you” (Lk 24:36). It is the greeting of the Risen Christ, who gives us peace: “Peace to you!”. It is a matter of both inner peace and the peace that is established in interpersonal relationships. The episode recounted by Luke the Evangelist rests heavily on the realism of the Resurrection. Jesus is not a spirit. Indeed, it is not about an apparition of Jesus’ spirit, but of his real presence with his risen body.

Jesus realizes that the Apostles are unsettled in seeing him, that they are bewildered because the reality of the Resurrection is inconceivable to them. They believe they are seeing a spirit; but the Risen Jesus is not a spirit; he is a man with body and soul. This is why, in order to convince them, he says to them: “See my hands and my feet” — he shows them his wounds — “that it is I myself; handle me, and see; for a spirit has not flesh and bones as you see that I have” (v. 39). And since this did not seem enough to overcome the disciples’ disbelief — the Gospel says something interesting: there was so much joy they had within that this joy prevented them from believing it: ‘No, it cannot be! It cannot be so! So much joy is not possible!’. And Jesus, in order to convince them, asks them: “Have you anything here to eat?” (v. 41). They offer him some broiled fish; Jesus takes and eats it in front of them, in order to convince them.

Jesus’ insistence on the reality of his Resurrection illuminates the Christian perspective of the body: the body is not an obstacle nor a prison of the soul. The body is created by God, and mankind is not complete if there is no union of body and soul. Jesus, who has triumphed over death and risen in body and soul, helps us to understand that we must have a positive idea of our body. It can become an occasion or instrument of sin, but sin is not provoked by the body, but rather by our moral weakness. The body is a wondrous gift from God, intended, in union with the soul, to express in fullness the image and likeness of Him. Therefore, we are called to have great respect and care for our body and that of others.

Any offense or wound or violence to the body of our neighbor is an affront to God the Creator! My thoughts go, in particular, to the children, the women, the elderly who are physically abused. In the flesh of these people we find the Body of Christ. Christ wounded, mocked, slandered, humiliated, scourged, crucified.... Jesus taught us love. A love that, in his Resurrection, is demonstrated to be more powerful than sin and death, and seeks to redeem all those who experience in their own body the slavery of our time.

In a world where too often self-importance prevails over the weakest and materialism stifles the spirit, today’s Gospel passage calls us to be people capable of looking deeply, full of wonder and great joy at having encountered the Risen Lord. It calls us to be people who know how to welcome and appreciate the novelty of life that He sows in history, in order to direct it toward new heavens and the new land. May we be sustained in this journey by the Virgin Mary, to whose maternal intercession we entrust ourselves with faith.

Easter Thank You! We are Blessed+

The Lenten and Easter Seasons has been a very blessed time at St. Mary's. And while the Easter Season continues to the Solemnity of Pentecost, I want to thank everyone who assisted and served our parish community these last 40 plus days.

Father Jordan and Father Mark: Thank you for your priestly service and witness. Daily, you offer the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass for the people of God. During this Lenten season, you ministered God's Mercy to hundreds, if not thousands of people in the Sacrament of Confession. Thank you for your "yes" to the Lord.

Deacons: I want to thank Deacon Carlo, Deacon Marty, Deacon Georgi, Deacon Tom, and Deacon Bill Ross for assisting in making our liturgies and Stations of the Cross a moving experience for our parishioners.

Malena Towers: Thank you sharing your amazing talents in leading our choirs. Your love for music is contagious, but your love for the Lord Jesus has sparked the fire of renewal in all our choir members. You are such a gift to our parish.

Saint Mary Choirs: Lent and Easter are busy Liturgical seasons that requires a lot of sacred music for the liturgies. Thank you for sharing your talent and the sacrifice of your time in the long rehearsals to make everything sound wonderful. You are all a gift to the parish.

Ken Perry and the Life Teen Band: You are all amazing worship leaders! The anointing of the Lord is upon your music because you don't "just sing" of Jesus, you have encountered Him. The Lord is glorified in your worship. Thank you for helping Life Teen "lead teens closer to Christ."

Laney Wilkens: I cannot imagine what St. Mary's would be like without your help, love, and dedication. You are an amazing woman! As sacristan you always are thinking one step ahead of the priests. You train the altar servers, and you make our church and chapel look beautiful. Words cannot express our gratitude. Thank you.

Liturgical Ministers and Ushers: So many people comment that Saint Mary's is such a welcoming parish community. I want to thank our lectors, extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion, altar servers and ushers for your service to our community and making our liturgical celebrations so wonderful for our parish family.

RCIA Team: RCIA is a whole year process of meeting and teaching our Catholic faith to the catechumens so they will be prepared to receive the Sacraments at the Easter Vigil. Our RCIA Coordinator Jackie Ross with her team of Deacon Bill Ross, Christopher McNicholas, Judi Rodriguez, and Abby Perry have done a great job in sharing their love and zeal for Jesus and His Church over these years. Thank you for sharing the joy of the Lord.

Robert Lauricella: Robert serves our parish community as a sacristan. He is ever present, assisting the priests, serving daily Masses, funeral Masses, assists families in preparing the funerals for their loved ones, cleaning the Adoration Chapel. These are just a few things he does on a regular basis. I want to thank Robert for all he does, but mostly for the love and joy of the Lord he shares in doing all he does. He is a great gift to our parish.

Matt Marzorati: We are so blessed to have Matt on staff. Since the pandemic, Matt has made it possible for all our Masses and services to be Livestreamed on our YouTube channel. Matt has helped us stay connected with all our parishioners through social media.

Patrick Mullen and Patricia Ellis: Patrick, who is also vice principal of Saint Mary School, has been coordinating our Lenten Simply Suppers on Fridays of Lent for the past six years. Parishioners have been enjoying great fellowship and delicious soups at these gatherings. This year, Patrick once again enlisted the help of a professional chef, our own Trish Ellis to make the soups each week. They were so good, that parishioners were asking for her recipes.

Parish Staff: We are blessed here at Saint Mary's with an office staff that I refer to as "Team Jesus." When you work for the church, you do so out of love and service – you certainly don't work for large salaries – there are none. Everyone on Team Jesus come in everyday and gives their all in servicing our parishioners. I want to thank everyone for your hard work, dedication, and commitment to Saint Mary's Parish.

Hospitality Committee: Under the leadership of Jackie and Ed Kazuba, the hospitality committee provides refreshments and "hospitality" after all our Masses and events. Thank you for your love and service to our parish community.

Our Parishioners: Thank you for your love for our Lord, His Blessed Mother and His Church. Thank you to all the young families who bring their children to Church. Thank you to all our faithful parishioners for your support for our parish, but most importantly – for everything you do to help advance the Kingdom of God here in Middletown, New Jersey and beyond. As I keep saying: We are Blessed!

I borrow the words of Saint Paul:

I thank God every time I think of You.

God Bless+
Father Jeff Kegley

ANNUAL CATHOLIC Appeal 2024

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Today, I invite you to be a part of something truly special— the Annual Catholic Appeal! This year's theme, "One Love, One Faith, One Family," mirrors the teachings of Christ and resonates with the wisdom of Colossians: "And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity" (Colossians 3:14). This profound and perfect love reinforces our shared belief in one God, inspiring us to become pillars of compassion and support for each other.

A gift to the appeal becomes a lifeline for families in need, supports the education of our youth in the faith, and empowers individuals on their journey to become religious leaders, such as Deacons and Catechists, serving our parishes and communities with wisdom and faith. Your support also sustains our retired priests, allowing them to continue offering guidance, and provides essential resources to our Catholic school principals and teachers, ensuring an education grounded in faith and values.

May God bless you abundantly for your generosity and commitment to our church. Join us on this journey, hand in hand, as we embody the spirit of "One Love, One Faith, One Family."

With every good wish, I remain
Most Reverend David M. O'Connell, C.M.
Bishop of Trenton

Are you ready for the baseball season? Did you know that the Founder of the Knights Of Columbus, Blessed Michael McGivney, was also a heck of a baseball player? We know that in one game with his seminary team, he scored three runs, contributing to a big victory of 23-6. He paved the way for a long history of baseball players who would join the Knights, including Connie Mack, Babe Ruth, Joe DiMaggio, Mike Sweeney, and Shane Victorino. St. Mary's Lost and Found

There is a lost & found closet in the Narthex. Parishioners can approach ushers after Mass for lost items.

Women's Discipleship

St. Mary's Women's Discipleship

Come be part of our wonderful ministry!
St. Mary's Women's Discipleship meets every Wednesday from 7:30-9 PM on Zoom.

Our gifted Musical Director, Malena Towers, leads us in praise and worship. Our teacher
Darlene Line, continues our ongoing study
-"What Did She Know"- the incredible way God used women in the Bible to bring about Salvation History.

Join us for a wonderful evening of scripture, prayer, and fellowship. New members are always welcome. Invite a friend to join you!
Contact Pat at 732-671-0671 or robpat52@aol.com for our Zoom login.

Respect Life Catholics United for Life

Join the Rosary Vigil for Life every Saturday, 9-10am at Planned Parenthood Abortion Facility, 69 E Newman Springs Rd, Shrewsbury

Respect Life Donation Bin

Thank you for the overwhelming response of donations! Donations needed are of diapers (sizes 4-6), wipes, and lotions. These donations greatly help the women who have chosen life for their child. Please keep it coming!

Post Abortion Healing

The psychological and spiritual wounds of abortion can be deep and crippling. It can have a devastating effect, not only on the mother but also on the father, grandparents, and friends of the mother. Rachel's Vineyard is a chance to focus on this painful time in your life through a supportive and non-judgmental process, in an atmosphere of confidentiality, understanding, and compassion. If you have suffered through an abortion, you might consider attending one of our retreat weekends. Retreat weekends are both women and men. For more information contact:

Eucharistic Ministry For the Homebound

Would you like to bring cheer to a homebound person by bringing Jesus to them? The need is great, and we can't do it without you. We are always in need of individuals to bring Communion on Sunday mornings to those who are unable to join us. Please pray about it. If interested for more info or to sign up, please call Terry Ruane at: 908-461-1712.

THE DIOCESE OF TRENTON is committed to the initiative outlined in the U.S. Bishop's Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People and to its own policies and guidelines regarding the reporting and investigation of sexual abuse allegation involving minors.

If you have been sexually abused as a minor by a member of the clergy or anyone representing the Catholic Church, or if you know of someone who was, you can report that abuse through the diocesan Abuse Hotline: 1-888-296-2965 or via email at abuseline@dioceseoftrenton.org

The Diocese of Trenton reports any allegations of sexual abuse to the appropriate law enforcement agencies. Anyone with an allegation is also encouraged to provide that information to local law enforcement authorities.
